

1. Login interfaces

The image displays four mobile app screens for an application named 'Hang Out'. The top-left screen is the main landing page, featuring a background image of the Esplanade - Theatres on the Bay in Singapore at night. It includes the app name 'Hang Out', a tagline 'Check out Singaporean's favorites!', and four buttons: 'SIGN UP NOW' (pink), 'LOGIN AS CUSTOMER' (dark blue), 'LOGIN AS MERCHANTS' (dark blue), and 'LOGIN AS ADMIN' (dark blue). The top-right screen is the 'Login' page, which has a back arrow, the title 'Login', and input fields for 'EMAIL ADDRESS' (containing 'name.lastname@test.com') and 'PASSWORD' (represented by dots). It features a pink 'LOGIN' button and a 'Forgot password?' link. The bottom-left screen is the 'Signup' page, also with a back arrow, the title 'Signup', and input fields for 'CHOOSE A USERNAME' (containing 'LondonGirl87'), 'YOU ARE CUSTOMER OR MERCHANT?' (a dropdown menu currently showing 'Customer'), 'EMAIL ADDRESS' (containing 'name.lastname@test.com'), and 'PASSWORD' (represented by dots). It includes a pink 'SIGNUP' button and an 'Already a member?' link. The bottom-right screen is the 'Forgot password' page, with a back arrow, the title 'Forgot password', a sub-header 'Enter your email address, we'll send you the instructions on how to change your password', an 'EMAIL ADDRESS' input field (containing 'name.lastname@test.com'), and a pink 'SEND' button. All screens show a status bar at the top with 'Carrier', '9:41 AM', and '42%' battery.
